CLOSING DAY EXERCISES

of

SAINT PETER'S CHOIR SCHOOL

Philadelphia

Monday, June 12h, 1933

PROGRAM

Opening Chorus	The Swallows	Cowen
Soprano Solo	Daffodil Song	Wood

Sung by William Dawson, Jr.

Piano Solo	Forest Sounds	Dennée

Played by William J. Mayer, Jr.

Soprano Solos

a. Joy of the Morning	Ware
b. Come Down, Laughing Streamlet	Spross

Sung by Paul H. Rainey

A PLAY

William Tell

CHARACTERS

William Tell	Alan Moore
Walter, his son	Samuel Corliss
Hedwig, his wife	Bruce K. Taylor
First Friend	David S. Benson
Second Friend	Mario della Cioppa
Third Friend	James Flood
Gessler	Horace T. Dumont
First Soldier	T. Richard Lafferty
Second Soldier	Leonard W. Snellman, Jr.
Third Soldier	Ralph W. Detwiler
Fourth Soldier	Donald C. McCandless
Fifth Soldier	John Elliot
Sixth Soldier	William A. Most
Drummer	Harold W. Helveston, Jr.

Swiss People

Harold E. Richter	Jack Long
Norman Scott	Robert T. Davis
Walter M. Culbert	Robert A. Fraser
Alexander LaMont	Harold R. Valerius

Scene I

Time: When Gessler ruled over Switzerland
Place: Tell's home in the mountains of Switzerland

Scene II

Time: An hour later
Place: In the mountains

Scene III

Time: A half hour later
Place: In the mountains

Scene IV

Time: One hour later
Place: Altdorf - an open square

Staged by Maurice J. Snyder, Class of '21

PROGRAM

Chorus — A Birthday — Cowen

Piano Solo — Spring Rain — Klum
Played by Edgar L. Clayton

Soprano Solos

a. The Land of Nod — Hawley
b. If You Have a Sweetheart — Hawley
Sung by Donald C. McCandless

A PLAY

The Boston Tea Party

CHARACTERS

Thomas Rigby, a tavern keeper	William J. Mayer, Jr., '33
Egbert Penrose, Sidney Marsh — Young British lieutenants	William D. Tucker, '33; Richard B. Brown, '33
Richard Stockton	Paul H. Rainey, '33
Jefferson Winwood	William H. Few, '33
Ned Peabody	Edgar L. Clayton, '33
Phil Amesbury	William Dawson, Jr., '33
John Corey	William A. Robie, '33
Frank Wharton	Richard W. Kowal, '34

Scene

Time: Six o'clock on a December evening, 1773.
Place: The tavern known as "The Golden Pheasant", Boston.

Staged by Maurice J. Snyder, Class of '21

Address by The Reverend John W. Walker

Awarding of Prizes

Alumni Scholarship Award

Winner in 1932: Everett R. Brown—average 94.0 percent
Winner in 1933: William Dawson, Jr.—average 95.3 percent

Presentation of Diplomas by the Rector

Star Spangled Banner

Benediction

Graduating Class of 1933

RICHARD BRADDOCK BROWN
WILLIAM DAWSON, Jr.
WILLIAM HENRY FEW
WILLIAM JOHN MAYER, Jr.
PAUL HASKIS RAINEY
WILLIAM ALEXANDER ROBIE
WILLIAM DAVID TUCKER

The following pupils made the highest general averages during the past season:

WILLIAM DAWSON, Jr.,	95.3
WILLIAM J. MAYER, Jr.,	92.8
SAMUEL CORLISS,	92.7
LEONARD W. SNELLMAN, Jr.,	91.4
DONALD C. McCANDLESS,	90.7
RALPH W. DETWILER,	90.4
HAROLD W. HELVESTON, Jr.,	90.4

School will re-open Wednesday, September 13th.